CORRESPONDENCE.

MORGAN COUNTY.

West Liberty Doings.

County court Monday. No business of importance transacted.

W. T. Colvin is now traveling for Trimble Bros., of Mt. Sterling.

Mrs. Sam Wheeler is on the sick list and is now in the country.

Jas. H. Swango, of your place, was in our midst Monday. He will begin a select school here on February 3.

A man whose name we never learned, rode his horse over a cliff more than one hundred feet high, while on his way from Morehead. It is needless to say he was drunk.

Caney Cullings.

Big John Bays, of Montgomery county, the great cattle buyer of Eastern Kentucky, was the guest of R. E. and J. T. Caudill Sunday night, en route to Johnson and Floyd counties to buy cattle.

The protracted meeting closed Monday on Caney with 28 conversions and 9 additions to the church.

David Williams and Mrs. Joe Williams, widow of the late Joe Williams, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony on the 22nd inst. Daves last wife was a sister to his first one, and Joe Williams was his cousin. May they live long and be happy is the wish of your scribe.

Uncle Lish Oney, of White Oak, Magoffin county, killed himself last Saturday by hanging with a rope. He had been losing his mind for some time, and Saturday morning he arose and put on his best clothes and had his son George shave him for the purpose of going to the quarterly meeting held just above where he lived, but instead of going to church he went up the branch to the house where Dock Oney moved from and tied the rope round a rafter and swung down through the loft and passed into eternity. His funeral was preached Monday and he was buried Tuesday.

Sellers Sunshine.

Born, to the wife of Wm. Easterling, a girl.

Isom Long went to Campton on business last week.

John Bays, of Montgomery county, passed through here Sunday.

James Yocum was in this neighborhood buying cattle.

Mrs. J. Hile Wilson is on the sick list. Dr. Nickell is attending her.

The infant child of Boon Phipps and wife died last week. They have the sympathy of the entire community in their affliction.

Married, on the 21st inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Sam O. Brown, Alexander Nickell to Miss Sadie Brown, Rev. B. F. Blankenship officiating. May their pathway be strewn with flowers, and may their greatest troubles be little ones.

Deputy United States Marshal Green Lacy and others captured Joe Long and Drue Lacy making mountain dew. While on their way to Salyersville to have their examining trial, the boys broke guard and made a desperate attempt to escape, in which Long succeeded, but Lacy was recaptured, had his trial and is now in jail at West Liberty to await the action of the federal court.

Maytown Missiles.

Mr. Jo Clark, of your town, commenced the building for the roller mill here Monday morning.

L. T. Bolin, formerly of this town, but now of Jackson, was in town this week wanting a good carpenter for Jackson, but failed to get one.

H. C. Hord, of your town, has bought property here and will soon move to it.

G. W. Sexton, of Menefee county, has rented property of widow C. A. Swango and has moved to town.

Mr. Ferguson, of Grassy creek, has moved to town and will run the engine for the Maytown mill.

E. W. Meeks, the boss miller, will move to your town this week. Mr. Baley also left us for your town. It is fine weather for moving.

J. W. Cravens, of your town, and W. R. Marra, of Knoxville, Tenn., were the guests of W. P. Sample Tuesday.

Maj. W. J. Seitz stopped over night Monday night on his way home from Frankfort. He says the special ten gallon liquor law of Morgan county will not be repealed this session of the legislature. We are sorry for our officials who advocated the repeal.

For ...$2.50.

The Louisville Evening Post

for one year for $2.50. A daily newspaper is essential to every well informed man, and is crowding out the old weekly editions of political dailies.

The news facilities of the Evening Post are unsurpassed.
—Its Washington correspondent, Mr. A. W. Butt, stands at the head of his profession.
—Its Frankfort Bureau is in charge of Mr. A. W. Farnham.
—It will have daily reports of Congressional proceedings and of all that is occurring at Frankfort.

THE YEAR 1896

promises to be the most exciting in our political history. The legislature meets January 7, and at once the Senatorial contest opens. Congress will daily debate matters of first importance.

The Venezuelan affair will greatly affect the course of party National conventions will be held in June and July.

The election in November will be full of surprises.

During such a year of doubt and disturbance every man wants to read and those of the Evening Post are confessedly the best.

Daily Market Reports,

The Evening Post is running daily a series of short stories by the greatest American authors.

A daily newspaper, with all the name implies, 312 days in the year, and THE HERALD one year, all for $2.50, is one of the miracles of cheap journalism. But we have arranged with the publishers of the Louisville Evening Post for this great combination. If you want daily market reports, or full and fair reports from Washington or Frankfort, you should send your subscriptions to us at once. The Evening Post does not color its news, so you get all the news straight. The state news of the Evening Post is the best department in any daily paper. Remember, The Evening Post and this journal for $2.50.

There will be a meeting held on Friday, the 7th of February, at the residence of Dink Murphy, on the Murphy fork of Grassy. Elder Dunegan and other preachers will participate in the services. This meeting has been held annually on the same date for many years, and was instituted at the request of Old Uncle Billy Murphy, who died on the seventh day of February, the date just now not remembered.

Japanese Oil is said to be the most wonderful liniment for external application that scientific chemists have yet been able to compound. Hundreds and thousands testify to this, as it has saved both life and expense. Sold at this office at 40 cents a bottle. Try it, as it is a household necessity and always "a friend in need."

Jas. H. Swango, of this place, will begin a select school at West Liberty on Feb. 3, for a term of ten weeks. He will no doubt have a large school, and several teachers are expected to enroll, preparatory for examinations for certificates in the summer.

An Old Soldier's Recommendation.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea. Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief it would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all my old comrades, who, while giving their services to their country, contracted this dreadful disease as I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bending, Halsey, Oregon. For sale by John M. Rose.

Bruce Marcum was last week sent to the penitentiary for one year from the Wolfe circuit court on charge of perjury in the issuance of a marriage license. Bruce is the son of Ned Marcum, of Breathitt county. The case will be appealed.

Good Advice Quickly Followed

Cured of Rheumatism by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"I was taken down with rheumatism over a year ago. I was sick for over six months. Often I would have such pains that I could hardly endure them. A friend came to me and advised me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. I took him at his word and took a bottle of it, and since have taken eight bottles of it.

It Has Cured Me

When the doctors could do me no good whatever. After being benefited so much from this medicine I describe Hood's Sarsaparilla as a wonderful medicine. I also advise every one who is troubled with rheumatism not to be without Hood's Sarsaparilla.

I am a farmer, and the medicine has given me much energy and strength to perform my work." GEORGE W. TULCY, Benjamin, Missouri.

We need a little of the filthy lucre about as bad as a hobo does a meal's victuals at times, and your promptness will relieve our distress and be forever appreciated. Never mind the rush. Come on and we'll try and attend your wants.

J. R. Barkley, a prominent timberman of East Tennessee, was the guest of his friend, N. L. Ware, of this place, Tuesday, and with that gentleman left Wednesday morning for the far side of this county on a prospecting tour.

Some time ago Mr. Simon Goldbaum, of San Luis Rey, Cal., was troubled with a lame back and rheumatism. He used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and a prompt cure was effected. He says he has since advised many of his friends to try it and all who have done so have spoken highly of it. It is for sale by John M. Rose.

Mrs. Miles K. Wilson and her son, Joe Lee, gave our office a pleasant call Saturday, and left the necessary for THE HERALD to still be sent to them. would be pleased to have a number of such callers.
